

YOU CAN HELP LOUISIANA FISHERMEN TODAY!

LOUISIANA FISHERMEN

are an integral part of the state's culture. Whether they are Cajun, Vietnamese, Croatian, or Yugoslavian, they all help to make up the "Cultural Gumbo" of Louisiana. They are very much like those who make up other fishing communities around the world. They are honest, proud, hardworking people. They treasure the simple things in life and are, in fact, our nation's treasure.

The Friends of the Fishermen Fund is the officially endorsed fund of the Louisiana Seafood Promotion and Marketing Board and was created as a way to help Louisiana's fishermen in their greatest time of need. We ask you to join us in unified support as we collectively call upon our friends and neighbors, corporations, foundations, and both non-governmental and governmental organizations to do their part.
